

SARAH GABRIEL

"My art celebrates my passion for mixing bold floral arrangements from either my garden or favourite growers, collecting traditional handmade decorative fabrics from around the world, and fossicking through op shops or antique stores for hidden gems and unlike companions.

My still life's portray my connection to nature and love of celebrating the natural world within everyday interiors.

The work which incorporates pianola rolls represents my connection to music and the poetry in song lyrics which run along the rolls."