

LUCY HERSEY

Born Melbourne, Australia 1990

Currently lives in Loch, Gunaikurnai country, Victoria.

Instagram @lucehersey | Website www.lucyhersey.com | email lucyhersey@live.com

Lucy Hersey is an emerging artist from regional south east Victoria. She is self-taught, working primarily in earth pigment and plant inks which she forages locally and processes in her home studio. She is enamoured with vignettes of the everyday, nativeflowers and birdlife, and exploring the themes of motherhood, and healing through her profound love and connection with nature.

Solo exhibitions

2018 – Fond Farewell – Meeniyan Art Gallery

Curation

2018 – Regeneration, an exhibition – Exhibition and residency program in collaboration with the Australian Regenerative Medicine Institute (Monash University), St Heliers Street Gallery, The Abbotsford Convent.

Group Exhibitions

2020 – FLORA – Heritage Hill Gallery, Dandenong (postponed due to COVID-19)

My Still Life – No Vacancy Gallery, Melbourne

Home – The Corner Store Gallery, Orange, NSW

2018 – Speaking about self care – Maggies Art Space, Collingwood

Regeneration, an exhibition – St Heliers Street Gallery, Abbotsford

Mount Eliza Art and Design Show – Mount Eliza

Derinya Art and Craft Exhibition – Frankston

Small works – YEPgallery, Foster

Decade – Incub8r gallery, Fitzroy

Collections

Works on permanent exhibition as part of 'the artists wall' in The Tenterfield AirBnB farmstay.

Representation

Represented by The Moree Gallery, Moree NSW